Re: Rejection/Closure of Administrative Complaint

Dear Ms. Leatherbury:

On August 30, 2016, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), External Civil Rights Compliance Office (ECRCO) received a complaint, forwarded from the Office of Attorney General, State of Florida alleging that the Habitat for Humanity of Jacksonville, Inc. (Habijax), has violated Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the EPA's nondiscrimination regulation (see 40 C.F.R. Part 7, Subpart C) by building the Fairway Oaks housing development on a former landfill that caused the Complainant, a person with disabilities, and other disabled persons in the development, adverse health impacts and damage to homes in the complex from cracking slabs, mildew and mold. ECRCO has determined that it cannot accept this administrative complaint for investigation because it does not meet the jurisdictional requirements described in EPA's nondiscrimination regulation.

Pursuant to EPA's nondiscrimination regulation, ECRCO conducts a preliminary review of administrative complaints to determine acceptance, rejection, or referral to the appropriate Federal agency. See 40 C.F.R. § 7.120(d)(1). To be accepted for investigation, a complaint must meet the jurisdictional requirements described in the EPA's nondiscrimination regulation. First, the complaint must be in writing. See 40 C.F.R. § 7.120(b)(1). Second, it must describe an alleged discriminatory act that, if true, may violate the EPA's nondiscrimination regulation (i.e., an alleged discriminatory act based on race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability). Id. Third, it must be filed within 180 days of the alleged discriminatory act. See 40

C.F.R. § 7.120(b)(2). Finally, the complaint must be filed against an applicant for, or recipient of, EPA financial assistance that allegedly committed the discriminatory act. See 40 C.F.R. § 7.15.

After careful consideration, ECRCO has concluded that it cannot accept this complaint for investigation because Habijax is not an applicant for, or a recipient of, EPA financial assistance. Therefore, ECRCO is closing the complaint as of the date of this letter.

We are aware that the Complainant might already be in contact with the Florida Department of Environmental Protection, but if not we did suggest that she may wish to raise her concerns with the (FDEP), Headquarters, by calling FDEP at (850)245-2118, or writing to FDEP at Department of Environmental Protection, Office of the Ombudsman & Public Services, 3900 Commonwealth Blvd., MS 49, Tallahassee, FL 32399. If you have any questions about this letter, please contact Debra McGhee, Team Lead, at (202) 564-6464, by e-mail at mcghee.debra@epa.gov or by mail at U.S. EPA, Office of General Counsel, External Civil Rights Compliance Office, Mail Code 2310A, 1200 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20460.
